

1. What is the name of this map? It's a Topographical Montana map
2. What does the key tell you? Temperature degrees
3. How do you know where temperatures average 56-60 degrees? By looking at the legend
4. What is the temperature range shown on this map? Under 56 to over 72 degrees
5. Using the scale, what is the approximate distance between Montana's northern and southern borders? 325 miles
6. The directional arrow shows north, south, east, and west North is usually shown at the top of the arrow. Using the directional arrow in which directions